Organization to Host Annual Chalk Art Competition

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE (1 Jan. 20XX)- Organization is hosting their 3rd annual Chalk Art Competition, Color the Town, on May 25, 20XX. The event will last from 8:30 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. Contestants can register now at our location.

Registration costs $25 per contestant. Contestants can begin drawing at 8:30 a.m. Check-in begins at 8:00 a.m. Each contestant will be provided with a square number for their drawing location. Drawings must be complete by 4:00 p.m., when judging begins. Winners will be announced at 5:00 p.m., with first, second, and third place prizes in two age groups- Adult (18+) and Child (17 and under). There will also be an honorable mention in each category.

Food and drinks will be available for purchase by vendors such as Food Truck, Ice Cream Truck, and Smoothie Truck. Organization will be selling bottled beverages and a variety of desserts. There will also be raffle prizes, tickets $1 apiece. Live music will also be playing by Local Band. "The last two years have been a success, and we hope to do the same this year too!" says Organization director Patty Jones.

Organization is a nonprofit that supports the arts. All money raised goes to art programs offered within the community such as adult painting classes and Sculpting for Students. For any additional information regarding the event contact Patty Jones at 555-555-5555, or pjones@someemail.com.
